

Investigation services...getting to the heart of a problem

Sometimes it is difficult to get to the heart of a problem – fractious working relationships; complaints about culture; allegations of bullying and harassment; a serious incident; a dispute; a mistake. Sometimes you need an entirely independent, forensic and authoritative pair of eyes to be able to identify it, describe it and outline the consequences. Sometimes you just do not have the resources to investigate an issue yourselves.

UK Top 100 law firm Ward Hadaway offers its Investigation Services – a network of highly skilled and experienced investigators chosen for their sector specific knowledge and their ability to deliver clear outcomes.

WHAT WE CAN DO:

Our internal network of investigators have the ability to carry out investigations in the following areas:

- Employment disputes including the breakdown in working relationships, grievances, disciplinaries, allegations of bullying & harassment & discrimination
- Whistleblowing concerns
- Procurement exercises & issues
- The value of a commercial contract
- Management of contract breaches & the consequences
- Governance, including review of procurement of legal services & internal legal teams
- Risk management in relation to the termination of contracts
- Due diligence on commercial contracts
- Dealing with Dispute Resolution clauses and Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR")
- Serious Incidents

WHY WARD HADAWAY:

Quality
