Licensing

Our licensing team advise and represent businesses and individuals in relation to licensing applications made under the Licensing Act 2003 throughout the country. Our fees for such matters vary depending on the complexities of the case as well as the volume of work we receive. We work with our clients to create a bespoke pricing package based on their needs and the likely frequency of work so please contact us to discuss this further.

Cost

We offer a range of fixed fees that are applicable for individual instructions, which includes:

Site visits or meetings with others may incur travel time (charged at our hourly rate) and incur disbursements. Travel costs will range depending on the distance travelled and travel by car is charged at HMRC approved rates. The requirement of overnight accommodation will depend on the location of a hearing and costs will vary depending on this.

All of our fixed fees quoted above assume that the application is relatively straightforward and that you have provided all of the information needed to facilitate submission of the application in a timely manner. Work will be undertaken by our licensing specialists and their experience can be found here. All work will be supervised by our Head of Unit, Richard Arnot who will ensure quality advice is maintained throughout.

How long will the application take?

Matters that are unopposed usually take 29 days following submission. Applications may need to be resolved at a hearing which will add further time.
